

Daniel Kraus
631.576.7128
dan@dskraus.com

OBJECTIVE

A position in web development, both challenging and encouraging growth of skills and leadership within an organization and team that strives for excellence in every aspect and takes pride in their work.

SKILLS

- Extensive experience with Coldfusion 8-9, JavaScript-jQuery, MS SQL, AJAX, XHTML, CSS, XML, AS3
- Strong personal skills including working well in high-pressure and deadline driven environment. Rapidly learns and adapts to new technologies and ideas.
- Expert in both Windows and Mac Operating Systems and hardware maintenance and repair.
- Foundations in customer service and sales.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Silverscape, Boston, MA September 2008 – Present
Lead Web Developer and Client Support Specialist

- Developing XHTML/CSS/JS/Coldfusion sites. Working frequently with design and project management teams solving UI/UX challenges and meeting business objectives.
- Integrating sites with proprietary Coldfusion driven CMS. Implementing and programming new features for CMS based on specific client needs with intent of making features useful for future users and increasing CMS product value.
- Maintaining proprietary Ecommerce system with data import/export support for QuickBooks and UPS Worldship.
- Utilize various 3rd party APIs based on client needs including Google Maps and Analytics, Bullhorn Staffing, Xignite Financial, Twitter, Flickr, and Last.FM.
- Communicating directly with current clients providing technical support by troubleshooting errors and assisting in website maintenance and training on CMS.

Northville Industries, Melville, NY February 2008 – Present
Independent Contractor - Web Designer and Front-End Developer

- Currently redesigning and developing front-end of company website to reflect current company marketing and sales efforts of various petroleum and energy commodities.
- Maintained and updated company websites.

Tactronics LLC, Westhampton Beach, NY May 2007 – August 2007
Web Designer and Developer

- Designed, developed, and maintained informational company websites to match current marketing collateral and branding for military defense contractor with strong SEO focus.
- Created Flash and 3d animations demonstrating product value.

EDUCATION

The New England Institute of Art, Brookline, MA Sept. 2005 – Dec. 2008
Major: Interactive Media Design GPA 3.7 – Dean's List

Courses included developing RIAs, information architecture, web development, interface design, animation, video production, and webcasting.

WebRaisers

Designed and developed XHTML/CSS websites for nonprofit organizations while working closely with clients to meet their objectives.

Certified CRLA Level 1 Peer Tutor

Tutored Interactive Media Design concepts and skills including AS 3, Flash, XHTML/CSS, and Java
